To Miss Marou,

Dear Madam,
I am obliged for your letter of the 9th. inst. and regret my tenancy of this house cannot continue.

I am willing to accept your offer of remission of rent for vacating the house at Christmas, although it is very difficult to find a suitable substitute at present. I have delayed this reply pending a decision respecting another house of which I had the next offer, but I am now informed the prior applicant has accepted the tenancy.

There are only two or three vacant boarding houses, and there are somewhat larger than we require, especially now that I am about to retire on pension.

As soon, however, as any definite arrangement is made in the matter I will write you again.

I am.

Yours faithfully

Mrs Mason

Dear Madam,

In reply to yours of the 28th inst. I think there will be little difficulty in our vacating the house early in Nov. in accordance with your wishes, as I hope within the next few days to sign the Deeds for the purchase of a house in Gale Crescent - the one formerly occupied by Mr Barton.

This has necessitated a very considerable modification of our former plans, but in the circumstances, it was the readiest solution of a somewhat difficult problem.

Mrs. Bizard wishes me to say that she will be prepared to afford you the rooms you may require from Sept. 23rd, but would like to know what rooms are desired.

There are possibly some few matters of detail respecting our removal which may be dealt with subsequently when we have a clearer view of the position, but in any case ~~you~~<sup>may</sup> rely on our readiness to meet your wishes as far as possible.

Meanwhile, I remain

Yours faithfully
M. S. Hazard
